• Amate House http://www.amatehouse.org/
  A year-long volunteer program that supports and develops men and women rooted in faith, dedicated to service, and committed to building a more just and loving society. Volunteers are placed in schools, parishes, and social service agencies throughout Chicago and live in intentional communities of six to twelve people.

• AmeriCorps http://www.americorps.gov/
  This government-affiliated service program includes the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) and AmeriCorps NCCC, as well as State and National programs.

• AVODAH: The Jewish Service Corps http://avodah.net/
  A year-long, full-time program that combines Jewish learning with social activism and community building in low-income neighborhoods in New York and Washington, DC.

• Camp hill Soltane http://www.camphillsoltane.org/
  A residential community made up of 85 people, including 40 young adults with special needs (called companions), 35 long-term volunteers (called coworkers), and ten coworker children. Coworkers come from all over the world, and range in age from 20 to 76. Coworkers stay at Soltane for a minimum of one year and serve in a variety of capacities, from supervising work and craft stations to direct care-giving. Coworkers are supported in their basic needs by the economic life of the community.

• Catholic Volunteer Network https://www.catholicvolunteernetwork.org/
  The Catholic Volunteer Network is a national association of Christian volunteers that promotes domestic and international service opportunities to people of all backgrounds, ages, and skills and also provides member programs with resources to effectively fulfill their missions.

• Christian Appalachian Project (CAP) http://www.chrisapp.org/
  An interdenominational, nonprofit Christian organization committed to serving people in need in Appalachia by providing physical, spiritual, and emotional support through a wide variety of programs and services. Various volunteer positions are available.

• City Year http://www.cityyear.org
  A national service program that unites young adults ages 17 to 24 from diverse racial, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds for a year of full-time community service, leadership development, and civic engagement.

• Green Corps’ Environmental Leadership Training Program http://www.greencorps.org/
  A paid, 13-month, full-time field school for environmental organizing and activism. The program features classroom, field work, and career placement components.

• Inner-City Teaching Corps of Chicago
  A volunteer service program that places outstanding recent graduates as teachers in inner-city Chicago classrooms. The ICTC also offers other opportunities for service-based professional development.

• JDC Jewish Service Corps http://jdc.org/help-jdc/get-involved.aspx
  The JDC Jewish Service Corps (JSC) offers qualified individuals the chance to serve a Jewish community abroad in areas such as Jewish outreach, community development, health, and social welfare. Volunteers are selected to match the particular needs of oversea communities.

• Jesuit Volunteers Corps http://www.jesuitvolunteers.org/
  The Jesuit Volunteer Corps offers one-year commitments in the United States or two-year commitments internationally at hundreds of grassroots organizations that provide essential services to low-income people.

• Jewish Organizing Initiative http://www.jewishorganizing.org/
  A one-year service program working with Boston area community and labor organizations. The year includes a commitment to regular sessions in community building among the ten or more “fellows” of JOI, mostly young adults in their twenties. The sessions include training and tradition, and group projects in the community.
• Learn and Serve America http://www.learnandserve.org/
  Supports service-learning programs in schools, colleges, and community organizations that engage nearly in one million youth in the areas of education, public safety, the environment, and other human needs.

• Lutheran Service Corps http://www.lscomaha.org/
  An urban ministry that matches full-time volunteers with programs that serve people in need in the Omaha, NE area.

• Lutheran Volunteer Corps http://www.lutheranvolunteercorps.org
  Open to mature individuals 21 and over who are willing to commit to at least one year of full-time service in urban social justice organizations in ten cities across the United States.

• MATCH Corps http://www.matchschool.org/matchcorps/matchcorps.htm
  An ambitious, intensive, one-on-one tutoring program designed to fully close the achievement gap between minority and non-minority students, and between economically disadvantaged students and their more advantaged peers. Each MATCH Corps member is assigned four urban high school students with whom they build an in-depth relationship throughout the year, as they work together towards clear goals in academic classes and on key exams like the MCAS, SAT, and AP.

• Mercy Volunteer Corps http://www.mercyvolunteers.org/
  Mercy Volunteer Corps is a year-long service program in the United States in both urban and rural regions. All Mercy volunteers work with those who are economically poor or marginalized in a spirit of solidarity and mutuality, live simply in community, and commit to personal and communal spiritual growth. Volunteers are placed in service fields compatible with their gifts/skills and the needs of the site.

• Milwaukee Community Service Corps http://www.milwaukeecommunityservicecorps.org/home.htm
  The Milwaukee Community Service Corps engages 18 to 23 year old residents of the Milwaukee, WI area in community service continuing education.

• Mississippi Teacher Corps http://mtc.olemiss.edu/
  The Mississippi Teacher Corps is a two-year program, similar to the Peace Corps, which recruits college graduates to teach in a critical needs school district in the Mississippi Delta

• National Association of Service and Conservation Corps http://www.nascc.org/
  Serves as an advocate, central reference point, and provider for training and technical assistance for youth services and conservation corps programs across the country.

• New Sector Residency in Social Enterprise (RISE) http://www.newsector.org/
  New Sector's staff works with Boston-area nonprofit organizations to structure substantive, meaningful strategic planning projects and equips talented young leaders to complete them. Our residency offers recent college graduates the opportunity to have significant social impact while developing their own professional and leadership skills

• Northwest Youth Corps http://www.nwyouthcorps.org/
  An Oregon-based nonprofit job training, alternative/outdoor education, employment, and youth development organization that has served nearly 7,700 young people since it was established in 1984.

• Peace Corps http://www.peacecorps.gov/
  A U.S. government organization of men and women who live in another country for two years, working at the grassroots level to help solve some of the most important challenges facing the developing world.

• Public Allies http://www.publicallies.org
  A program for young adults, ages 18-30 who commit to ten months of intensive leadership training and professional apprenticeship. Allies receive a living allowance, health and child care benefits, and an educational award

• Repair the World http://werepair.org/
  A national coalition of Jewish year-of-service programs. The mission of the Repair the World is to inspire everyone in the Jewish community to dedicate a part of their lives to full-time, hands-on volunteer experience.
• Restless Development http://www.restlessdevelopment.org/
  Restless Development is an international development charity that recruits and trains young adults (aged 18-28) as volunteer Peer Educators, to lead programs that address urgent health and environmental issues in Africa and Asia.

• Rocky Mountain Youth Corps http://www.rockymountainyouthcorps.org/
  A job training and advocacy program that provides 16 to 19 year olds in Northwest Colorado the opportunity to gain self-awareness and insight, outdoor skills, job ethics, financial management skills, and community and independent living skills.

• San Francisco Conservation Corps http://www.sfcc.org/
  A job and academic training organization serving young people ages 11 to 26, corps members develop their job skills, leadership abilities, and environmental awareness by completing outreach, conservation, and community service projects throughout the city.

• Student Conservation Association http://www.thesca.org/
  The Student Conservation Association fosters lifelong stewardship of the environment by offering opportunities for education, leadership, and personal development while providing public service in natural resource management, cultural preservation, environmental protection, and conservation.

• Teach for America http://www.teachforamerica.org/
  The national corps of recent college graduates of all academic major who commit two years to teach in under-resourced urban and rural public schools with the overall aim of eliminating educational inequity.

• United Planet (UP) http://www.unitedplanet.org/
  United Planet is an international nonprofit organization devoted to inspiring global citizenship and cross-cultural understanding through a range of diverse initiatives, such as one-to-twelve week, six-month, and one-year volunteer service programs in over 50 countries.

• Vincentian Service Corps http://www.vscorps.org
  The Vincentian Service Corps is for men and women who want to give one year of their lives to serve the poor, live in the community with other Corps members, and experience a simple lifestyle.